

Wyższa Szkoła Studiów Międzynarodowych w Łodzi

Lodz Academy of International Studies

How to get to Łódź

You can get to Łódź by bus, train or plane.

- plane

You can arrive to Warsaw by plane- polish national airline, LOT (www.lot.com), flies from various locations. Another possibility is to arrive to Łódź- Lublinek Airport (www.airport.lodz.pl). There are a few inexpensive flights from big airports to Łódź- Lublinek for example: London, Dublin, Rome or Paris.

- bus

There are many possibilities to arrive to Łódź by bus. You can choose Polish Express directly from Warsaw airport or from Warsaw Central Train Station, which will take you to the Lodz Bus Station Fabryczna. You can also arrive in Lodz from any other Polish city. In Poland buses are widely used and have many good connections.

- train

After arriving to Warsaw you can take a train directly to Łódź. There are many connections from Warszawa Centralna or other Warsaw's train stations. In order to check the time of train's departure use the web site www.pkp.pl .

Once you are in Lodz

From Fabryczna Train and Bus Station you can take the tram number 5 which will take you directly to Lodz Academy of International Studies. (bus stop Brzozowa on Paderewskiego street)

You can reach us by Tram: numbers 3 and 5 to the stop at Przybyszewskiego/Brzozowa. Piotrkowska is about 500 meters away. The Kilińskiego/Senatorska tram stop (trams numbers 1, 4, 5), is 300 meters away. The academy is situated in a quiet surrounding in Brzozowa Street. Attention! To get here by car you must go through Senatorska Street as Brzozowa is a one-way street. You cannot drive in from Przybyszewskiego Street.